Connecting Greenland to Global Gateways with Air Greenland

International Flights with Air Greenland

ROUTE: COPENHAGEN (CPH) – NUUK (GOH) ROUND TRIP

Copenhagen – Nuuk Direct Service

Air Greenland operates direct services between Copenhagen and Nuuk, providing travel agents with reliable access to Greenland’s capital and convenient onward connections across Air Greenland’s domestic network. The schedule combines early departures and late departures from Copenhagen, allowing flexible itinerary planning and efficient same day travel between Denmark and Greenland. Early departures operate on Mondays and Fridays, while late departures operate on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Aircraft

Flights are primarily operated by Airbus A330neo Tuukkaq, Air Greenland’s widebody aircraft with twin aisles. Economy Class features a 2–4–2 seat configuration, while Premium Class offers enhanced comfort in a 2–3–2 layout.

Selected Sunday departures are operated by Airbus A320neo Unaaq, a single aisle aircraft with a 3–3 Economy Class cabin layout.

International Flights with Air Greenland

ROUND TRIP SERVICE BETWEEN COPENHAGEN (CPH) AND ILULISSAT (JAV)

Round trip service: Copenhagen to Ilulissat
Operating period: 02 November 2026 to 09 January 2028

Aircraft:
Jetttime Boeing 737 800 and Air Greenland Airbus A320neo Unaaq

Air Greenland operates a direct nonstop service between Copenhagen and Ilulissat, providing travel agents with reliable access to Disko Bay, the Ilulissat Icefjord UNESCO World Heritage Site and North Greenland.

The route starts with a winter programme from November 2026, mainly operating on Wednesdays with selected additional departures during peak travel periods.

From spring and summer 2027, frequency increases significantly, reaching up to six weekly rotations from mid June to early September.

Flights are operated by single aisle aircraft in a 3 3 Economy Class layout. Jetttime Boeing 737 800 operates the first part of the programme with 189 or 180 Economy seats.

From spring 2027, Air Greenland's Airbus A320neo Unaaq takes over the route, supporting Ilulissat's development as a key gateway to North Greenland.
